Chin Yong ~ Tenor(Malaysia)

Graduated from the Malaysian Institute of Arts, majored in vocal music. In 1985, he took up advanced vocal studies in Rome, Italy, under the Italian tenor Angelo Marenzi. At the same time, he also studied operatic stage performance and won the appreciation of his teacher. In 1988 he entered the Austrian National Vienna Academy of Music and Performing Arts, to study vocal music and operatic stage performance under Prof. Ralf Doering. From 1990 to 1992 he was employed at Dresden National Opera House.

During his years in Europe, he participated in seven international singing contests and won many prizes, to name but a few, the 1st runner-up in the 4th Ismaele Voltolini International Singing Contest in Italy, the 1st runner-up in the 1st Bilbao International Singing Contest in Spain and the 1st runner-up in Belvedere International Singing Contest in Austria. After one of the contests, a critic of an Italian press "La Gazzetta" pointed out that when performing the works of Donizetti and Cilea, he had such an artistic way of controlling the dynamics that it was very close to perfection.

Not only did he won many prizes in international singing contests, he also received high-regarding comments for his operatic performance. In 1987, after a performance of the one-act opera Gianni Schicchi by Puccini in La Nuove Fenice Opera House in Osimo, Italy, the local press "Il Messaggero" hailed him as the most outstanding young tenor in Italy.

He has always been actively involved in concert, oratorio and opera performances both during his years in Europe and after coming back to Asia. He was invited to join Wexford Music Festival 1989 in Ireland. After his recital in Taipei, he won much admiration from the audience, demonstrating the charisma of a world-famous vocalist. His performance as Duke in Verdi's opera "Rigoletto" was praised by the audience and critics. In 1994, he was invited to sing Handel's Messiah in Shanghai and Beethoven's 9th Symphony in Hong Kong. He was invited to participate in "The 1995 Taipei Charity Concert by Mirella Freni and Nicolai Ghiaurov", was highly appreciated, and invited to sing encore piece "Libiamo" with Mirella Freni. In 1996, he was invited to Osaka, Japan, to sing as the soloist in a grand production "Beethoven ~ 9th with a Cast of 10,000". He also had a successful performance of Wagner's "Der fliegende Holländer" as Steersman and Puccini's "La Bohème" as Rodolfo at Taipei in the beginning of 1997. In March 1999, he was invited to sing "La Bohème" as Rodolfo around Taiwan. His solo recital in Taipei was greatly successful in 2000. In 2002, he was invited to sing in concert tour of "Pacific Three Tenor Recital". In 2003, he was invited to sing concerts in Esplanade Concert Hall in Singapore, and invited by Istana Budaya to sing in a concert with Malaysia Nasional Choir. In 2005 January, he was invited to sing an opera in Chinese "Lei Yu" in Esplanade Concert Hall in Singapore. His vocal recital in Xi An, China in April 2005 was extremely successful. Chin Yong was highly admired not only by the public and the students of Xi An Music Conservatory,
