More Information

Located on the north half of New Zealand's North Island, Auckland is a multicultural city beloved for its picturesque surroundings. From the panoramic views found on its extinct volcanos, to the sight of sprawling oceans that surround the city, Auckland has numerous photo opportunities to choose from. The harbour in particular is a major drawcard for the city, where yachts are docked and water sports thrive. Popular beaches and tranquil bays also line Auckland's coastline, making it an ideal holiday destination in summer.

Away from the bay, Auckland's city is an urban playground made up of trendy eateries, inner city apartments and a lively nightlife. The city's large multicultural community has resulted in a fusion of cultures which can be seen in its innovative fashion, retail and dining scenes. The arts and culture are very much alive and well in Auckland as the streets continue to buzz with the latest gallery opening, the latest hit show and the latest bar to watch the rugby.

Head beyond the city and you'll find an array of peaceful suburbs featuring wooden houses lined along leafy streets. With numerous green covered peaks, beautiful parks and million dollar views, it's little wonder why life in Auckland is regularly rated amongst some of the best in the world. Rural areas on the city's outskirts are where you'll find the typical peaceful and green scenery New Zealand is famous for. From sea to city to country, Auckland really does have it all.
